Honoring the Memory of Dr. Martin Luther King

From Submitted Reports

CHICAGO, IL—On Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 19, 2010, Harris & Harris hosted an internal event for over 250 employees. As a tangible way to honor Dr. King's memory, a candidate forum was held to educate employees on the upcoming spring elections. In addition, video clips of Dr. King's famous "I Have a Dream" speech were shown, and one of the employees sang a beautiful rendition of "God Bless America."

It was a way to bring all employees together, according to Arnie Harris, President of Harris & Harris, Ltd. "It was a terrific event," he said, adding that, "the day allowed the employees to reflect on the achievements of our country, while recommitting to the great work of Dr. King of building a better society through peaceful dialogue and education."
